

SFC Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Financing of Terrorism Regtech Forum 2024

Speaker biographies

Opening remarks

Ms Julia Leung, SBS, JP

Chief Executive Officer, Securities and Futures Commission

Ms Julia Leung has been Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) since 1 January 2023.

Ms Leung joined the SFC in March 2015 as Executive Director of the Investment Products Division. She became Executive Director of the Intermediaries Division in June 2016 and took on the additional capacity of Deputy CEO in March 2018.

In more than 25 years of public service, Ms Leung has extensive experience in financial regulation, market development and international cooperation. Prior to joining the SFC, Ms Leung was the Under Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury from August 2008 to December 2013. Before that, she served at the Hong Kong Monetary Authority for 14 years, spending the last eight years as the Executive Director responsible for financial cooperation with Mainland and other international regulators. Currently, she is the Vice President of the Hong Kong Institute of Bankers and a council member of the Treasury Markets Association.

Ms Leung graduated from The Chinese University of Hong Kong and earned a master's degree from Columbia University in the City of New York. In 2014, she authored a book on how Asia has surmounted various financial crises.

Keynote address

Mr Joseph Chan, JP

Under Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury, the Government of Hong Kong SAR

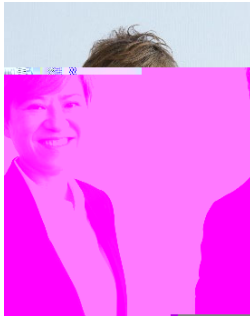

Mr Joseph Chan was appointed the Under Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury on 16 August 2017.

Mr Chan has many years of senior executive experience in the banking industry. He was a Managing Director in the Global Markets Division of Credit Agricole Corporate & Investment Bank, and was a Managing Director in Financial Markets of Standard Chartered Bank.

Prior to joining the Government, Mr Chan held multiple roles in a number of public and professional bodies, including Vice President of the Hong Kong Society of Financial Analysts, Director of Hong Kong Securities & Investment Institute, Advisor of the Chinese Gold & Silver Exchange, and Chairman of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority.

Plenary panel: Embracing technologies to combat financial crime

Ms Heddy Tsang

Head of Exchange, Hash Blockchain Limited, HashKey Exchange

Ms Heddy Tsang is the Head of Exchange with HashKey. She is responsible for overall management oversight of HashKey Exchange, one of the first licensed virtual asset trading platforms in Hong Kong. She supervises the business development, product expansion, trading operations, compliance and risk management of the exchange.

Ms Tsang has over 20 years of experience in finance and has held a number of senior roles in both the traditional sector and the crypto industry. She was Head of Listed Products (Asia) at Societe Generale and Head of Distribution at ABN Amro Bank. Prior to HashKey, she was Head of Exchange with another virtual asset trading platform applicant in Hong Kong.

Ms Tsang has a master's degree in Economics from the University of Cambridge, UK.

Mr Ronnie Kung

Chairman, The Hong Kong Association of Online Brokers Limited

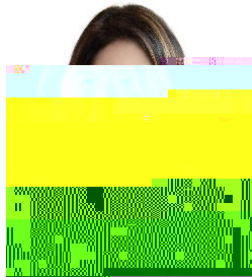

Mr Ronnie Kung acts as the Chairman of The Hong Kong Association of Online Brokers Limited (HKAOB) who promotes the affable relationships within the online securities and futures industry, and provides a forum for discussion and advice on issues related to the industry.

Mr Kung has been working in the Hong Kong financial market industry for more than 30 years. He is currently one of the Managing Directors and Responsible Officers (ROs) for BOCI Securities Limited, licensing with Types 1, 2, 4 and 5 regulated activities. Before joining BOCI, he had played the roles of Sales Manager and RO for HSBC Broking Securities (Asia) Limited for 20 years.

Mr Kung manages the securities and futures businesses of the company and supervises the Wealth Management, Employee Share Option Plan (ESOP) and Equity Derivative Trading businesses. In his daily management, using Regtech to combat financial crime and sustain compliance is the most crucial responsibility. Nevertheless, the Corporate Members of HKAOB also share the same view in applying technologies to various areas to ensure compliance.

Plenary panel: Embracing technologies to combat financial crime

Ms Amy Lo, JP

Chairman, Executive Committee, Private Wealth Management Association

Ms Amy Lo chairs the Executive Committee of the Hong Kong Private Wealth Management Association (PWMA). She is also Chairman, Global Wealth Management Asia, Co-Head of Wealth Management Asia Pacific, Head and Chief Executive of UBS Hong Kong, and a Managing Director at UBS. With over 30 years of experience in the banking industry, Ms Lo actively involved in the development of Hong Kong's private banking industry. She is a Board Member of the Hong Kong Financial Services Development Council (FSDC) and the Hong Kong Academy for Wealth Legacy.

Panel 2: Regtech adoption in the securities sector

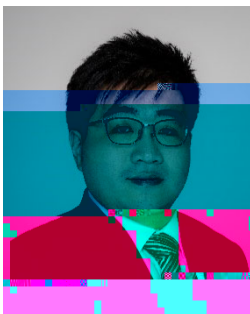

Moderator

Mr Keith Choy

*Senior Director, Intermediaries Supervision Department,
Intermediaries Division, Securities and Futures Commission*

Mr Keith Choy is the Senior Director and head of the SFC's Intermediaries Supervision Department which supervises over 3,000 financial intermediaries in Hong Kong including investment banks, securities dealers, futures brokers, financial advisers and asset managers. Mr Choy oversees key supervision activities such as carrying out on-site inspections of firms for the purpose of identifying and managing risky firms and detecting misconduct. He has also been actively involved in the formulation and implementation of policies and regulations for the securities and futures industry.

Mr Choy joined the SFC's Enforcement Division in 1998 and was in charge of the Intermediaries Misconduct Team before he moved to his current position in 2017. Prior to joining the SFC, Mr Choy practised as a solicitor in Hong Kong.

Mr Justin To

Principal Assistant Secretary (Financial Services) for Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau

Mr Justin To leads the policy team in the Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau in formulating Hong Kong's overall policy on anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing (AML/CFT), as well as collaborating with the SFC and other financial regulators in the implementation of relevant initiatives in the financial services sector. In addition, he and his team are also responsible for matters relating to banking policy, bond market development, and the policy on regulating virtual asset activities.

Prior to his current role, Mr To worked on a range of policy areas including urban and town planning, transport planning, and welfare service planning in Hong Kong.

Panel 2: Regtech adoption in the securities sector

Ms Katherine Kou

Chairman, Hong Kong Securities Association

Ms Katherine Kou, who joined Hong Kong Securities Association (HKSA)'s Board of Directors on 27 August 2009 and became the Chairman of the Association on 5 September 2023, plays an essential role in promoting professionalism and industry development, as well as representing the interests of our members, by leading HKSA's Membership, Advocacy, IT, Finance and Newsletter Committees.

In the capacity of HKSA's Chairman,

Panel 2: Regtech adoption in the securities sector

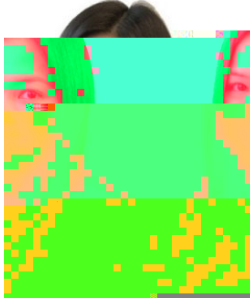

Professor Kar Yan Tam, MH, JP

Vice-President for Administration and Business and Chair Professor of Information Systems, Business Statistics and Operations

Panel 3: Optimising Regtech solutions for effective adoption

Moderator

Ms Joyce Pang

Associate Director & Head of AML, Intermediaries Supervision Department, Intermediaries Division, Securities and Futures Commission

Ms Joyce Pang is an Associate Director and the Head of AML in the Intermediaries Supervision Department of the SFC. In her current role, Ms Pang is responsible for overseeing the AML/CFT regulatory initiatives and policy work, as well as risk-based supervision of AML/CFT compliance of licensed corporations and virtual asset trading platforms.

Ms Pang is also heavily involved in local regulatory developments and has been closely monitoring industry's AML/CFT practices. She works closely with the industry to identify emerging money laundering risks and to develop appropriate regulatory responses. She is also actively engaged in international AML/CFT initiatives, including the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), where she contributes to the development of global standards.

Mr Jonathan Ng

Head of Anti Money Laundering and Financial Crime Compliance, Bank of China International Holdings Limited

Mr Jonathan Ng specialises in AML/CFT and financial crime compliance (FCC) with 18 years of experience in the banking and securities industry. Prior to joining the private sector, he possessed 15 years of law enforcement experience, specialising in commercial crimes as well as money laundering investigations. His current position is the Head of Anti Money Laundering and Financial Crime Compliance at Bank of China International Holdings Limited (BOCI).

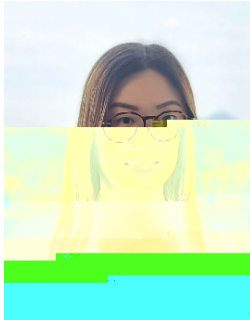

Prior to the journey with BOCI, Mr Ng held head and senior roles with Bank of Singapore, ICBCI, HSBC and Citibank. Mr Ng has accumulated years of experience and knowledge in private banking, investment banking, retail banking, securities and futures brokerage and private wealth management.

Panel 3: Optimising Regtech solutions for effective adoption02 1

Panel 3: Optimising Regtech solutions for effective adoption

Ms Sharon Wong

*Senior Manager, Intermediaries Supervision Department,
Intermediaries Division, Securities and Futures Commission*

Ms Sharon Wong is a Senior Manager in the Intermediaries Supervision Department at the SFC. She specialises in AML/CFT, and is responsible for developing AML/CFT policies and supervisory tools. Ms Wong also plays a significant role in government-led projects, including the FATF Mutual Evaluation of Hong Kong and the Hong Kong Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Risk Assessment.

Ms Wong is an experienced professional with around 20 years of experience in the financial industry. Prior to joining the SFC, Ms Wong was a Senior Manager at a professional services firm, specialising in regulatory advisory services for the financial services sector.

Ms Wong is a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist and a Certified Public Accountant in Hong Kong.
