corresponding need for mutual co-operation between the relevant national authorities, have reached the following understanding.

Principles

3 The Authorities intend that the fullest mutual assistance is provided without

- (c) ensuring that only fit and proper persons are authorised or registered to conduct the business referred to in sub-paragraph (b) and promoting high standards of fair dealing and integrity in their conduct of that business by enhanced recognition of each Authorised Person's responsibilities.

- (a) the information required (identity of persons, specific questions to be asked etc.);
- (b) the purpose for which information is sought (including details of the rule or law pertaining to the matter which is the subject of the request);
- (c) a description of the conduct or suspected conduct which gives rise to the request;

(d) the link between the specified rule or law and the requested assistance;

the requesting Authority;

- (e) the relevance of the requested assistance to the specified rule or law;
- (f) to whom, if anyone, onward disclosure of information is likely to be necessary and in relation to onward disclosure to an appropriate authority;

- (b) whether the request involves an assertion of jurisdiction not recognised by the territory of the requested Authority; and
- (c) whether it would be contrary to the public interest to give the assistance sought.

12 The requested Authority may, as a condition of providing assistance, require the requesting Authority to make a contribution to costs.

under the MOU, require the requesting Authority to make a contribution to costs. Such a contribution may, in particular, be required where the cost of a request is substantial or where a substantial imbalance has arisen in the cumulative costs incurred.

Unsolicited Information
